

I agree with the VECs the Morse code is an outdated mode of the amature operators. I am A Vietnam Veteran and I have a service connected hearing problem I cannot hear the tone good enough and I have been trying to understand the code since 1974 even if I could send it good enough to pass the exam. I would never us it becouse I could not recieve it with my hearing problem. so please delete that requirement so I can upgrade .